WHAT IS

Spring Forward is a new and innovative development programme for those already in a management role or who are moving in that direction.

It enables participants to:

- ✓ take a fresh look at their career
- ✓ set new, realistic goals
- ✓ become more energised for their work
- ✓ understand how culture and managerial issues influence communication and motivation
- ✓ find coaching and mentoring support to match their aspirations
- ✓ be more positive & self-motivating

WHO IS IT FOR?

It's for people who may have found that traditional training, focusing on technical skills, hasn't delivered what they need to step up to the next level.

It's for you if you want to continue and deepen progress on your career and personal development. It will give you a greater sense of self, an awareness of where you want to go and the confidence to make that happen, in a supportive and balanced way.

Powerful tools and techniques will give you a crucial advantage in breaking through barriers, gaining career success, achieving your full potential.

WHAT'S INVOLVED?
